Residential on 0.02 Acres

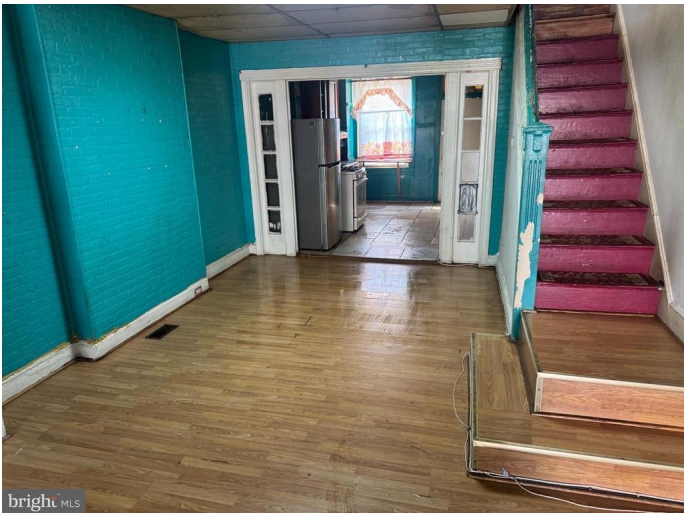

ELWOOD PARK, Baltimore, MD

This colonial townhouse in the desirable Elwood Park neighborhood presents an exceptional investment opportunity. Built in 1915, this property boasts a classic brick faade that exudes timeless elegance, while the combination of brick and vinyl siding enhances its curb appeal and durability. Inside, the 1,260 square feet of living space features rich laminated flooring that flows seamlessly throughout, creating a warm atmosphere. The upper level includes a full bathroom with tub shower, two spacious bedrooms and an extra room that can be converted to a third bedroom. The partial basement offers a blank canvas for investors to create additional living space, whether as a recreational area or extra storage, significantly increasing the property's value. With both interior and exterior access, this space can be transformed to suit various needs. The Elwood Park location is poised for growth, ensuring strong rental demand and potential appreciation. This townhouse is not just a home; it's a strategic investment in a thriving community.
